(Preamble to the RTI Act, 2005)

- 1.1 The RTI Act is an expression of the people’s aspiration for an open Government. Democracy requires an informed citizenry and transparency of functioning. ## CHAPTER-IV

Administration of the Right to Information Act

4.1 Effective Suo-moto disclosure of information:

Right to Information Act under Section 4 mandates every public authority for pro-active disclosure of information. The information which is required to be disclosed under this section includes particulars of the organization including functions and duties, rules, regulations, instructions, manuals, and records followed for the discharge of functions, directory of officers and officials alongwith monthly remuneration being paid to them, details of annual budget including expenditure incurred, details of schemes/programmes being handled, its beneficiaries and concession or subsidy being provided etc. The particulars of State Assistant Public Officers/State Public Information Officers/First Appellate Authority are also required to be disclosed. It is a statutory requirement which every public authority is bound to meet. Further, it is not sufficient to publish the above information once but every public authority is obliged to update such information periodically. As far as possible the information should be updated immediately as and when any development takes place. The information may be posted on the website facilitating the citizens to access to the information without approaching the public authority. This exercise as per requirement of RTI Act, 2005 was to be completed within one hundred and twenty days from its commencement but a number of public authorities are yet to take effective steps as contemplated under Section 4 of the Act.

4.2 Maintenance and retrieval of records.

Section 4 (1) (a) of the Right to Information Act 2005 lays importance on maintenance of records by the public authorities duly catalogued and indexed in a manner and form which facilitates access within a reasonable time. In many cases the disposal of requests asking for copies of documents, it was experienced that the State Public Information Officers failed to retrieve the documents requested because of absence of a proper record keeping system. Record keeping is an area neglected in most of the offices of Government and Public Sector Undertakings. Government may launch a special drive in this direction so that the record available in the offices of the public authorities are properly catalogued, indexed and stored in a manner that facilitate easy retrieval of information. The Act also emphasizes upon computerization of the records and access through net-work.

4.3 Provisions of adequate staff and budget for furnishing the information.

The Right to Information Act, 2005 can successfully create a practical regime for information sharing with the citizen if there is an effective delivery mechanism in public authorities especially at the district and block levels. Some of the public authorities at the district or at the block level do not have any basic infrastructure like photocopiers, computers etc. to provide information to the public. Since funds under contingency are also limited the option to get photocopies from the market is also not possible. In the absence of infrastructure hand written illegible information is sometimes furnished to the information seekers. These difficulties had been constantly voiced in the interaction which the Commission had with the members of the public, State Public Information Officers and other stake holders apart from being raised in the public hearings before the Commission. Therefore, the State Government may earmark a certain percentage of budgets for implementation of the RTI related issues. Adequate provisions be made for purchase of stationery, office equipments like photocopiers, computer etc. in the office of designated officers.

4.4 Cost and Fee rules under the RTI Act.

Section 27 of the Right to Information Act, 2005 read with Sections 6 (1), 7 (1) and 7 (5) of the Act provide for prescribing fee for submission of application and the cost for providing the information. Accordingly, the Haryana Government had notified the Haryana Right to Information Rules, 2005 on 28th October 2005 wherein the application fee was prescribed @ Rs. 50/- and additional fee @ Rs. 10/- per page. The State Government after reconsidering the matter and by repealing the Haryana Right to Information Rules, 2005 notified Haryana Right to Information Rules, 2009 on 21st December 2009 wherein the additional fee to be charged under sub Section 5 of Section 7 of the Act was reduced from Rs. 10/- to Rs. 2/- per page. Copy of the rules notified on 21st December 2009 is appended at Annexure 'A'.

4.5. Appeal Procedure

In exercise of powers conferred under Section 27 read with sub-Section 10 of the Section 19 of the Right to Information Act, 2005, the State Government laid down the procedure for filing appeals, procedure for deciding appeal, mode of serving notices, appearance of appellant/complainant before the Commission etc. by notifying Haryana Right to Information Rules, 2009 on 21st December 2009 by repealing the earlier rules notified on 28th October 2005.

CHAPTER-V

Monitoring and Reporting

- 5.1 Section 25 of the Right to Information Act, 2005 provides that State Information Commission at the end of each year shall prepare a report on the implementation of the provisions of this Act for the year and forward a copy to the appropriate Government. The report is required to be laid before the State Legislature thereafter. Section 25 (2) of the Act further mandates that each Ministry or Department or Public Under takings shall in relation to the public authorities within their jurisdiction collect and provide such information to the State Information Commission as is required to prepare the Annual Report by the Commission. When no report was received from the public authorities, the Commission vide letter dated 28.10.2013 directed the Administrative Secretaries, Heads of Departments, Divisional Commissioners, Deputy Commissioners of the Districts in the State, Managing Directors of Boards, Corporations and public sectors undertakings, Registrar, Punjab & Haryana High Court, Secretary Haryana Vidhan Sabha to collect the required details from the designated State Public Information Officers and furnish it to the Commission for the preparation of the Annual report from 01.01.2012 to 31.12.2012. Statistical analysis of the administration of the Act, on the basis of the data received by the Commission from the various public authorities, arranged in alphabetical order in respect of Administrative Secretaries, Heads of Departments, Boards, Corporations, Public Undertakings, Commissioners of Divisions and Deputy Commissioners separately is annexed as Annexure 'B'. A list of major Departments and public authorities who did not respond to the Communications from the Commission dated 28.10.2013 is placed at Annexure 'C'.

5.2 As per available information during the period from 01.01.2012 to 31.12.2012, a total of 34996 applications were received by the reporting public authorities. The access to information was withheld on account of exemption provisions in 169 and 92 cases under Section 8 and 9 respectively of the RTI Act, 2005. Thus access to information was denied in about 0.745 percentages of total cases. A total sum of Rs. 1487878 was deposited as prescribed application fee and additional fee by the applicants during the period under report.

These figure shows that the public authorities have by and large provided the information in majority of cases to the RTI applicants.

5.3 Suggestions received from the Public Authorities towards improved implementation of the Act.

For bringing improvement in the implementation of the RTI Act, 2005, certain suggestions have been received from various public authorities while submitting reports sought under Section 25(2) of the Act. These are as under: -

- (i) The designated State Public Information Officer should be a senior level officer who could take action against the erring officer/official for committing delay in supplying the information.
- (ii) Additional fee should be enhanced to discourage the information seeker for frivolous information.
- (iii) Numerous, frivolous and voluminous complaints are received from RTI applicants which not only diverts the attention of the staff but also resources in collecting such information which do not serve any public interest.
- (iv) To reduce frivolous applications and to ensure that only genuine information seekers invoke the provision of the RTI Act it is suggested that only one information be allowed in one RTI application.
- (v) The BPL applicants are seeking information which does not relate to them. Generally the BPL applicants are seeking the entire information on the functioning of the public authority which is apparently a misuse of the Act. In such cases there should be some mechanism in the Act so that the BPL persons are actually benefited for their cause. The time limit of 30 days should be increased in respect of the information pertaining to more than 5 years old.

- (vi) The State Public Information Officers/First Public Authorities should be refreshed from time to time by imparting trainings.
- (vii) The penalty should be imposed upon the public authority with the stipulation to recover it from the erring official responsible for the delay in supplying the information.
- (viii) Third party information should not be disclosed.

CHAPTER-VI

The Sub Section 1 (d) of Section 26 of the Act casts obligation on the Government to train State Public Information Officer of public authorities and produce relevant training material for use by the public authorities themselves. The Commission in its earlier reports has suggested launching of a programme for training and awareness of the public for ensuring effective implementation of the Act. The response of the Government is as under: -

(i) Training Programme for SAPIOs/SPIOs/FAAs.

The State Government has designated the Haryana institute of public administration (HIPA), Gurgaon as nodal agency in this regard. ## CHAPTER-VIII

Recommendations for the reformation

The Right to Information Act casts responsibility upon both, the State Information Commission as well as public authorities, to suggest measures for effective implementation of the Act. Recommendations for reforms of the Commission to the State Government and the public authorities are as under: -

(i) Disposal of first appeals:-

Sub Section 1 of Section 19 of the Act provides for taking up a matter of first appeal before the Appellate Authority in the public authority, when the applicant is not satisfied with the information furnished by the State Public Information of the public authority. The First Appellate Authority is to dispose of the appeal within 30 days or within such extended period not exceeding a total of 45 days from the date of filing the appeal. In many cases, Commission has experienced that the First Appellate Authority either deal with the appeal late or do not dispose it of at all. This inevitably results in delayed receipt of information or compels the applicant to take up the matter with the Commission in second appeal. This causes delay, additional expenditure and avoidable agony. The Commission, therefore, recommends providing training to concerned officials to improve their perception of and performance under the Act.

- (ii) State Public Information Officers also need training to sensitize them to the needs of citizens. A massive round of training of SPIOs must therefore, be undertaken to enable them to discharge the responsibilities cast on them under the Act.
- (iii) Even though pro-active disclosure was mandatory under section 4(1), it was noticed that pro-active disclosure was not done in a satisfactory manner by many public authorities. The public authorities should realize the importance of pro-active disclosure as, in the long run , such disclosure would reduce the number of requests for information. Hence it is recommended that Government may suitably instruct the public authorities to disclose as much information as possible under section 4(1) of the Right to information Act, such as functions, duties, procedures, accountability and norms set by the public authorities for discharge of their functions has all the characteristics of the citizen's charter.
- (iv) Citizen's charter should therefore form an integral part of the disclosure under Section 4 (1) (b) so that the public is aware of the commitments of a public authority towards the citizens. All public authorities must, whenever necessary, revisit their procedures. Irrksome procedures should be debated in public and made more citizens friendly. Citizens should be able to enforce the norms disclosed under the RTI Act whenever necessary.

- (v) Disclosures under Section 4 (1) (b) must contain all the details as required under the Act and these details should be periodically updated. Commissions should have the authority to penalize public authorities for inadequate disclosure or non-disclosure of details required under this Section.
- (vi) It should be obligatory for public authorities to publish these disclosures in their Annual Reports.
- (vii) It is suggested that specific columns be included in the annual confidential reports of officers regarding their attitude towards implementation of the Act. The self assessment report of the SPIO and the First Appellate Authority must include information regarding number of applications/appeals received by them and their disposal.
